

are taking the Van Leans to Salango to introduce them to the people there. For they will be stationed there, which they have finished their language study.

We will come back next Thursday a by way of Pampali and bring the boys home for their Christmas holiday. Don't worry about the duties on the Christmas boxes that we may not get it until Valentines. It will be just as welcome. We did pay duties on all the boxes we have received. but none of them were too high.
 I wonder if we got the last one was that the one that had your in it? However, they have all been worth the duties paid and we are thankful for them. Our biggest bottle
