Both boys made friends with the elevator (or "vator" as they called it) boys. When we got off once I heard the boy say to another "That's a nice little family."

On the way to supper we met the Blakes and were overjoyed to find that they are going on the same ship with us to Portugal. Also the Shadd's and the Mitchins. All three families are Methodist missionaries going to Portugal to study before going to Africa. The Blakes and Shadd's are going to Angola. We met them all at Hartford.

After supper we called Lee & Cleora. They came
