

(3)

August 22, 1947

3

Paul Blake's birthday. The musicians played for dinner tonight, for dinner. Kenneth and I went down and watched them. Each one smiled at him and bent down and played especially to him.

Kenneth climbed as far in the rigging as I would let him.

August 21

The cabin crew visited the bridge (captain's). Kenneth went with me and then again with his father. The boat is 27,000 tons.

August 20, 1947

Saw "Brier Encounter" in the dining room tonight.

Aug. 19

May is all over his seasickness but he says he doesn't particularly care for ocean travel.