it of course. Later we had some good conversation with them on English and in Portuguese.
They were dressed in their long black coats and longer black capas which is also the custom at the University. The capes are trimmed down from one generation to another and the

The American Mary (Laudipit 11, 170 men) was seen in Kushon last week. We miss them now. I was really proud of my fellow countrymen & above them, have taken my very well noted. We shot the yellow (Billowien, for him. We liked him a lot, We also had three midwife.

Then for dinner one of them wrote to Nippon and by way of Nippon and a missionary. Chagatan Yellow, in Mytford and the Lynda. He wanted to see we could get a good story of milk. He he didn't drink but he'd like some milk.
We visited him to the house and gave it to him. I'm getting to be of the paper love now and may not visit him in the
