

and hope to continue that way until you get aboard the "Patria". May has armed himself with sea sick tablets so maybe he won't even "enjoar" (to be seasick).

I got your beautiful birthday cards. They mean even more here than when we were in Pelham or Armuta. The boys liked their pictures too and Tommie his birthday card. I had a lot of presents including a lovely old Portuguese brass lamp. Tommy had a party with cake & all.

Osby is busy today buying tickets. This afternoon we have to go to the house of some Portuguese friends for tea. Tonight others are coming here to say good bye to us. Wed. we go to the house of an English man who was born & brought up in Brazil but was graduated from Bates college, Lewiston. He is here doing missionary work now. Thurs. we go to Lintia supposed to be one of the most beautiful & famous places in Portugal. It is near what as is usual we have seen the further away places first. Saturday another feast and Sunday night the Baptist Church is having a special service for us. Wednesday after noon Mr. Lee is to preach & play his saw at one of the prisons. Last week he visited two hospitals for lepers about seventy miles from here. . . . a kiss for you

Kenneth

Lots of love from all of us and may God's blessing go with you Betty.
